

OPEN CALL

We are looking for women and/or members from the *LGBTQIA+ community from Hanover for a workshop and a performance with the collective LASTESIS

For the performance Resistencia by the Chilean collective LASTESIS, we are looking for up to 30 women and/or members from Hannover's LGBTQIA+ community who would like to take part in a workshop with LASTESIS lasting several days and in the performance on 1 July 2023 as part of Festival Theaterformen. Sustained by the bodies and experiences of the participants, Resistencia o la reivindicación de un derecho colectivo (Resistance or the Demand for a Collective Right) puts the queer-feminist theories of Judith Butler, Paul B. Preciado and María Lugones into practice. The project is about defending the right to a life free of violence.

With the 2019 performance *Un violador en tu camino \(A Rapist in Your Path\)* LASTESIS set a movement in motion that has extended far beyond Chile. Thousands of women and members of queer communities around the world have organised themselves and taken the choreography that called for resistance to sexualized violence onto the streets of their cities.

Further information on the performance under the following link: Resistencia
